SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Board is responsible, amongst others, for setting and communicating the strategic direction, enhancing corporate values of Ayer Group ("Group") and supervising its affairs to ensure its success within a framework of acceptable risks. It also reviews the performance of the management team and ensures that the necessary resources are available to meet the Group's objectives. The Board had appointed Ms Lee Sor Phaik on 1 July 2025 as Group Chief Executive Officer ("GCEO"). The Board also delegates specific responsibilities to the respective committees of the Board, namely the Audit Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee, Board Risk Committee and Board Sustainability Committee all of which operate within their defined Terms of Reference. Notwithstanding this, the Board remains responsible for its fiduciary duties. The Board assumes, amongst others, the following roles and responsibilities in discharging its fiduciary and leadership function: a) Reviewing and adopting the Group's strategic plans The Board has put in place a process where the Management will present their budget and business plan for the Board's review and approval. The Board will discuss and review the budget and business plan by providing their feedback to ensure that the Management has considered all relevant factors in developing such budget and business plan.

The Board oversees the implementation of strategies and policies of the Group that are determined by the Board. The Board also schedules frequent Board meetings in order to closely monitor the financial and operational performance of the Group's business and operations.

b) Overseeing the conduct of the Company's business

The Management is responsible for the day-to-day management of the business and operations of the Group. The Board will oversee the conduct of the Group's business by monitoring the performance of the Management under the leadership of the GCEO in delivering the approved targets in accordance with the annual operating budget and business plan.

The Group has put in place a management performance review system with identified Key Performance Indicators and targets set in line with the Group's strategy and budget. The Management Key Performance Indicators are cascaded down to all employees. Employees will then be rewarded based on the achievement of their respective Key Performance Indicators.

c) Succession planning

Executive functions are delegated to the Management led by the GCEO. The Group will continue to develop its talent pool for succession planning and to meet future challenges.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee undertakes a yearly evaluation of the performance of key management personnel to ensure that experienced and capable individuals fill all such key positions.

The Board regularly reviews the strategic direction of the Group and takes into account, amongst others, the governance aspects of the Group's businesses as part of its broader responsibility to purchasers, shareholders and the communities in which it operates, and to deliver long-term sustainable value to the shareholders of the Company.

The Board promotes and practices good corporate governance throughout the Group with the objective of translating these practices into better corporate performance.

The Company recognises the value of a diverse and skilled workforce and is committed to creating and maintaining an inclusive and collaborative work culture that will provide sustainability for the Company. The Group will continuously focus on ensuring the well-being of the employees is being looked after and to promote a merit-based culture in the Group.

The Group will continue to contribute to the social and economic development of the communities in which the Group operates. At the same time, the Group will place emphasis on the environmental impact of its products and services and will continue to promote an environmentally sustainable and responsible culture across the organisation.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The GCEO is the dedicated person within the Management to provide dedicated focus in managing sustainability from a strategic and operational perspective. The Company has two other employees under the Sustainability department.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee ("NRC") periodically reviews the composition of the board to ensure an appropriate mix of required skills, independence, experiences and diversity (including gender diversity) are present. The NRC also evaluates, on an annual basis: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the performance of the Board and Board Committees on the areas of Board mix and composition, quality of information and decision making, Board's relationship with the Management, Boardroom activities, Board chairman's role and responsibilities, Environmental, Social and Governance issues and effectiveness of each Board Committee;• the performance of each individual Directors based on their abilities and competencies, personality, technical knowledge, knowledge of listing requirements, level of participation and contribution to the business strategies of the Group; and• the independence of the Independent Directors. The NRC reviews the performance and the contribution of the Directors on an annual basis. The Company believes that valuable contribution can be obtained from a Director who has served the Company over a period of time since they have likely developed valuable insights into the Group and its businesses. Their continued contributions as Directors benefit the Board and the Group as a whole. The NRC reviews and recommends to the Board the proposed re-election of directors who are subject to retirement at AGMs, after having assessed their performance and contribution to the functions of the Board and its committee, as well as their fit and properness. In addition, the NRC reviews the independence of the Independent Directors annually. Following Mr. Chin Yoong Kheong's resignation as a Director on 31 December 2025, having reached 12-year as an Independent Non-Executive Director of the Company, being the tenure limit for independent director pursuant to paragraph 1.01 of

	the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities, the NRC had reviewed and recommended the appointment of a member for the Audit Committee and Board Risk Committee, as well as the Chairman for the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, in his place. The current Board comprises Directors with diverse knowledge, experience, requisite range of skills and competency to enable them to discharge their duties and responsibilities effectively, objectively and independently. The Independent Directors with diverse backgrounds also provide constructive debates, exchange of views on the Group and provide checks and balances which lead to better decision making.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application :	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board, through the NRC, has established the Directors appointment process. The NRC's terms of reference include reviewing and recommending policies on nomination and remuneration framework to the Board on all aspects of employment including but not limited to employment terms, benefits, remuneration and compensation for Non-Executive Directors, Executive Directors and key management positions under the employment of the Group. The final decision of the nomination and remuneration framework shall be the responsibility of the Board. The NRC is responsible for identifying and recommending suitable candidates for Board membership through a transparent and rigorous process. The NRC does have the liberty to rely on external opinions and services for such recommendations. The Board will have the ultimate responsibility and final decision on such appointment. The assessment and selection of the candidate should be based on the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• skills, knowledge, expertise, qualification and experience;• understanding of the Group's businesses;• integrity and judgment;• professionalism;• time commitment;• ability to form independent judgement;• the fit and properness of the candidate; and• any other criteria deemed fit. Notwithstanding the above, the NRC also takes into consideration the following factors for the purposes of the appointment: - <ul style="list-style-type: none">• other factors that promote diversity in age, gender, ethnicity and experience; and• in the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-

	Executive Director, whether such candidate has met the requirements for independence as defined in Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities. Upon deciding on their selection(s), the NRC will contact those identified candidates to determine and further enquire on the candidate's interest in serving the Company. This communication will ensure that prospective Board member(s) have clarity regarding the nominating process as well as Director/Board profiles, roles and responsibilities, expectation of time commitment and other criteria as required. The recruitment process concludes with an induction programme for a newly appointed director. The purpose of the induction programme is to, amongst others, allow the newly appointed director to understand the Company's vision and mission, the nature of the business, the corporate strategy and business plan. The NRC also takes into consideration the existing board positions held by a candidate, including on boards of non-listed companies, to ensure that Directors who are appointed are able to devote the required time to serve the Company effectively. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the Company is avoided. There is also no active politician on the Board. For senior management, the NRC will evaluate and select the candidate who best fit the needs of the Group and is able to address the gaps of the Group while taking into account the need for the Group to have a diversified and qualified management team.

Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board recognises the benefit for having gender diversity and values the different perspectives from women Director during discussions or meetings. Nevertheless, the Board acknowledges that appointment of Director should always prioritise merit and with due regard to the candidate's background, experience, and competency so that an appointment would add value to the Board and the Company. For FY2025, the Board had seven (7) members, two (2) of which are women directors and five (5) of which are men directors (29% women directors). Following the resignation of Mr. Chin Yoong Kheong on 31 December 2025, the Board has six (6) members, two (2) of which are women directors and four (4) of which are men directors (33% women directors). Among the senior management, one (1) out of two (2) senior management, i.e. the GCEO, is a woman.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.10

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises gender diversity at the boardroom and in its senior management as an essential component of good corporate governance. The Board has a policy of strictly adhering to the practice of non-discrimination in any form, whether based on race, age, religion and gender throughout the organisation, which includes the selection of Board members. The Board Diversity Policy is available on the Company's website at www.ayer.com.my. The disclosure on gender diversity of the Group is set out in the Sustainability Statement of the Annual Report.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: During the financial year, the NRC has carried out the performance evaluation of the Board, its committees and each of the Directors with the assistance of the Company Secretary. The assessment of the Board and its committees is based on the following main areas: - <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Board mix and composition;• Quality of Information and decision making;• Board's relationship with the Management;• Boardroom activities;• Board chairman's role and responsibilities;• Environmental, Social and Governance issues' and• Effectiveness of each Board Committees. The assessment involves the individual Directors and Board Committee members completing separate evaluation questionnaires regarding the procedures implemented by the Board and the Board Committees and whether any improvement needs to be considered to enhance the effectiveness of such procedures. The assessment is facilitated by the Company Secretary. The Directors also undertake self and peer reviews in which they assessed themselves and their fellow Directors' character, experience, integrity, competence and time commitment when serving as Directors of the Company. The results of the assessments were compiled and analysed by the Company Secretary. The results were then presented and discussed at the NRC's meeting and subsequently at the Board Meeting.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC and the Board ensures that the Company's remuneration policy is in line with the Company's corporate objectives and the interest of the shareholders of the Company and that the remuneration packages of Directors and the senior management team are sufficiently attractive to attract and retain persons of high calibre. The following are the salient elements of the Directors' remuneration policy: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Non-Executive Directors All Non-Executive Directors are paid a fixed annual director fee as members of the Board and Board committees. The amount of fees is based on the experience and level of responsibilities undertaken by the individual Non-Executive Directors as well as the industry and market practices in determining the level of remuneration to be recommended to shareholders for approval. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Senior Management team The Senior Management team's remuneration and rewards are linked to corporate and individual performance. The performance is measured against the key performance indicators set in accordance with the Company's annual budget and business plan. The Remuneration Policy and Procedures which sets out the remuneration policy and procedure for the Directors and senior management is available in the Company's website at www.ayer.com.my.

Practice 10.2

The board should disclose the features of its risk management and internal control framework, and the adequacy and effectiveness of this framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has formalised a risk management framework that prescribes a structured and integrated approach in managing the key business risks with the aim of safeguarding shareholders' interests and the Group's assets. The key aspects of the risk management framework are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Generally, the Board is accountable for the Group's overall risk profile and has delegated the oversight of the risk management function to the Board Risk Committee ("BRC"). The BRC is led by an Independent Non-Executive Director. The BRC is responsible for setting the direction on all strategic and policy matters in relation to risk management within the Group. In addition, the BRC shall also provide guidance on the development of appropriate and effective risk response strategies and contingency plans as well as monitoring the overall risk profile and risk tolerance within the Group.• A Risk Management Working Committee ("RMWC") is established and it is led by the GCEO. Other RMWC members comprise the GCFO, Head of Risk Management department and managers from different departments. The RMWC is responsible for identifying, monitoring and managing any such potential and existing risks within the Group. The GCEO is responsible for overseeing the risk management process which invites all employees to identify, evaluate, monitor and manage significant risks that the Group faces in its business and operations.• The likelihood of occurrence and magnitude of the impact of such risks are determined based on an established Enterprise Risk Matrix table.• The risk management assessment reviews are performed periodically to identify, assess and manage the risks faced by the Group. The reviews are carried out to address the risks that the Group is facing. All record of information about identified risks is captured in a risk register.

- remote shareholders' participation at general meetings.

Listed companies should also take the necessary steps to ensure good cyber hygiene practices are in place including data privacy and security to prevent cyber threats.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The number of registered shareholders physically attending the General Meetings of the Company is considered small and manageable by the Company. In view thereof, electronic voting which would incur higher cost is not deemed practicable.
	:	Currently, shareholders who are unable to attend and vote at the AGM of the Company are encouraged to submit the proxy form of the Company to the Share Registrar. Hence, this allows them to vote in absentia. The Company's AGMs has always been held at a venue which is easily accessible. Practice 13.4

The Chairman of the board should ensure that general meetings support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. The engagement should be interactive and include robust discussion on among others the company's financial and non-financial performance as well as the company's long-term strategies. Shareholders should also be provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions during the general meeting and all the questions should receive a meaningful response.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to.
Explanation on application of the practice	: The Chairman views the engagements among the Board, senior management and shareholders in earnest. Shareholders are eligible to pose questions including but not limited to financial and non-financial performances, and long-term strategies of the Group. The Company received questions from the shareholders/proxy holders during the 114 th AGM and the Board had provided meaningful response to every question. The questions raised by the shareholders/proxy holders and responded by the Board were minuted and the minutes of the 114 th AGM is available online on the Company's website at www.ayer.com.my .

Intended Outcome

Shareholders are able to participate, engage the board and senior management effectively and make informed voting decisions at General Meetings.

Practice 13.5

The board must ensure that the conduct of a virtual general meeting (fully virtual or hybrid) support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. This includes having in place the required infrastructure and tools to support among others, a smooth broadcast of the general meeting and interactive participation by shareholders. Questions posed by shareholders should be made visible to all meeting participants during the meeting itself.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to. Further, a listed issuer should also provide brief reasons on the choice of the meeting platform.
Application :	Not applicable – only physical general meetings were conducted in the financial year
